

Students of the Month

Honesty & Integrity

April 2018

Lacey is consistently honest in her daily activities with peers and adults alike. She stays on task independently while the teacher is helping other students, displaying her strong sense of integrity. Lacey's honest character makes her a wonderful role model for the entire class.

~Ms. A

I would love to nominate Laken for the 2nd grade student of the month. He shows a great deal of honesty and is quick to present the truth in any situation. He accepts responsibility for his actions and is eager to show growth.

~Mrs. Worley

Lyla is always thinking about how she can help people and be a better person. For a 3rd grader, Lyla is very mature and wise beyond her years. Recently, there was a situation that she went out of her way to be honest and by doing so also displayed a great amount of integrity. I was VERY proud of her choice. I appreciate Lyla's sincere and caring nature. She is a role model to her peers.

~ Mrs. Ryan

Cecilia is always looking for the just and honest decision. When she is faced with a difficult situation she always takes the high road and is completely honest. Cecilia is a fair and just little lady and I'm proud of her inner beauty.

~Mrs. Koester

Andrea can always be counted on to be honest and do the right thing. Not because she wants the recognition, or attention, or a prize; she does it simply because it is the right thing to do and she knows it.

~Mrs. Ruley

Lillian has a quiet, confident way about her that can easily go unnoticed, but she can always be counted on to do the right thing (especially when she thinks no one is looking). She is also one of the most straight-forward and honest students I've had the pleasure of working with. For these reasons and many more, I nominate Lillian Moore for this award.

~Mr. Rosso

Jack C. is a student who understands the importance of taking ownership of one's choices. While he takes pride in his many moments of positive choices, he is also forthright in admitting when he may have faltered. He is a student who remembers that his actions and words have an effect on those around him, and he works each day to do what he knows is right, even when no one is watching I appreciate and respect the efforts he puts forth to show honesty and integrity, even when it's not the easiest choice to make.

~Mrs. Arnone

Emma consistently stays true to herself, and is honest. She handles matters among her peers independently and in a positive way both in the classroom and out at recess. She looks out for her peers and does her very best to help others in need. Emma makes choices daily that showcases her integrity. She follows directions, stays on task, puts forth tremendous effort into every piece of work that she does, and sets an example for others without being asked.

~Ms. Cervantes

Bella is the type of student that exemplifies the character trait of integrity. Bella always allows her conscience to be her guide both in the classroom and with her peers. Bella's ability to choose what is right over what is easy can be seen through her daily actions. Her true and honest efforts are given to her teachers along with every assignment she turns in. Bella is also the type of person who supports and lifts up her friends by giving them honest and truthful opinions and advice.

~Mrs. Sloan