Information Station

This is just a reminder that you can always check the bulletin board by the cafeteria doors for updated school information. There is always a menu, newsletter, holiday dates and board minutes posted.

Independent Study Guidelines

A note has gone home with students regarding the guidelines used for independent study. Please be advised that the office needs notice at least 24 hours before independent study work is available for pick up. If you have any questions regarding the notice that went home, please contact the office (530)
